

Person-Centred Encounter Event 2017

Wednesday 5th - Sunday 9th July

Gregynog Hall, Powys, SY16 3PW

Following on from the very successful, ADPCA affiliated, 2016 event in Nottingham, we are pleased to announce that the 2017 Person-Centred Encounter Event will take place in the beautiful and highly accessible, Gregynog Hall, near Newtown, Powys. The hall is surrounded by 750 acres of grounds, giving a perfect, tranquil setting for encounter. In addition to the conference room, we are able to make use of two lounge areas. The event starts with dinner at 6pm and ends after afternoon tea on Sunday.

The person-centred basic encounter group provides opportunity for both person-centred meeting and developing person-centred being. "In such a group the individual comes to know himself and each of the others more completely than is possible in the usual social or working relationships." (Rogers, C. 1969, Encounter Groups, p16). This experiential event offers a self-structured, self-facilitated space where learning relating to encounter can be gained. It offers the potential to develop a more person-centred way of being, through offering space to develop greater congruence and deeper understanding of both person-centred and encounter theory.

All our events are run on a not-for-profit basis. The pricing for 2017 is as follows:
